

A theatrical event not to be missed!

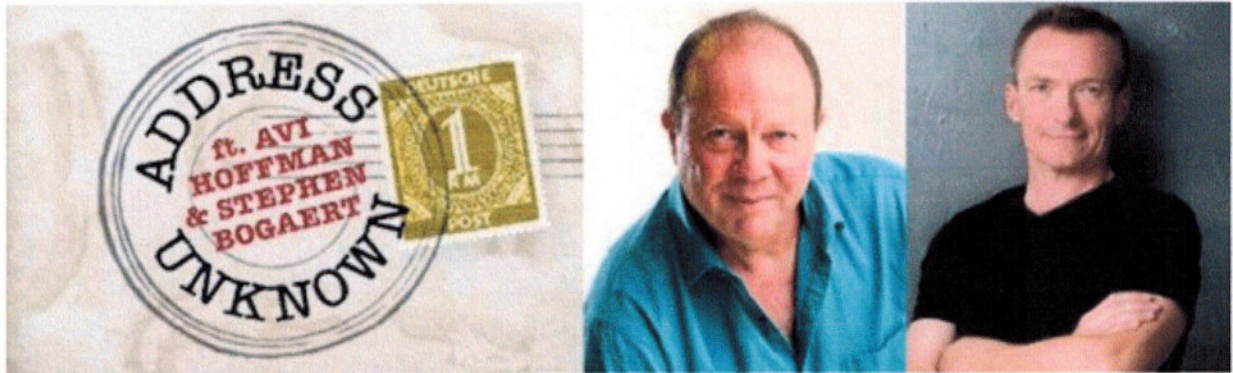

The Ashkenaz Festival,

supported by the first-ever grant awarded by the newly established

Toronto Workmen's Circle Foundation,

presents the critically-acclaimed dramatic reading (in English) of

Address Unknown

The shocking story of a friendship between a San Francisco-based Jewish art dealer and his former business partner, who has returned to Germany as the Nazi Party comes to power. As these dear friends become ideological enemies, one commits a cowardly betrayal while the other plots an ingenious and deadly revenge. Address Unknown is based on Katherine Kressman Taylor's 1938 novella, of which the New York Times Book Review wrote, "The most effective indictment of Nazism to appear in fiction!" The story is presented as a staged reading, and will be followed by a Q & A.

Sunday, September 2, 2018, 1 pm at the Studio Theatre, Harbourfront Centre

Tickets: $25 in advance - $30 on day of performance

Call Harbourfront Centre box office at 416-973-4000 or go to ashkenaz.ca to buy online